Your Excellency,

I am always concerned about the violation of anyone's human rights. In a number of countries, 1992 is being marked as the 500th anniversary of the arrival of Europeans on the continent. Therefore, it seems a particularly appropriate time to highlight concerns with respect to unresolved human rights violations against indigenous peoples of what is now called the Americas, including the case of Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo. My concern will not diminish when 1992 is over.

I am extremely concerned about the extrajudicial execution of Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo. I welcome any investigations into his killing and hope that the full truth will emerge and that those responsible for his death will be brought to justice. Amnesty International believes this must happen with respect to this and all human rights violations committed in Chile in order to prevent such atrocities from recurring. Amnesty International believes that the amnesty law of 1978 constitutes an obstacle to clarifying past abuses and preventing their recurrence and therefore the law should be repealed.

I hope that you consider what I have written. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Marisa

re: Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo - Mapuche Indians and Other Indigenous Peoples
in Chile

Dear Mr. Presidente:

I have read with dismay about the murder of Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo, a Mapuche Indian. I understand that the National Commission of Truth and Reconciliation presented the case to a civilian court for investigation in 1990, and that a criminal complaint for homicide was presented to the courts in 1991. His murderers have never been punished.

I also understand that it was not your government that did this and other horrendous crimes against your indigenous peoples. However, I am writing to ask you to take special steps to help your native peoples which I understand make up six per cent of your population.

Perhaps you think it impertinent of a "gringo" to be writing. This is probably especially annoying to you in view of the mistreatment of Native Americans/Indians in my own country. Well, believe me, I write to the American government too. The situation concerning the Native Indigenous Peoples in the Western Hemisphere is appalling to me and many like me.

I try to do my part to help. However, I am not so fortunate as you are--- as head of your country you can do much to reverse the sad plight of the Indigenous Peoples of Chile.

Respectfully yours,

Myrna Lefferts
