

Sr. Patricio Aylwin Azócar,
Presidente de la República,
Palacio de la Moneda,
Santiago, Chile.

Joe Darovan,

(3)

F. Lat 3,
Lower Penarama Tce,
Sundays Well,
Cork,
Ireland.

Date: 25 October 1992.

Your Excellency,

I am writing to you once again to express my deep concern ~~for~~ at the Human Rights abuses and violations being committed in your country against the indigenous Mapuche Indians. I refer to my letter to you dated 29-8-92.

In my previous letter to you I also wrote about Nelson Curikur and about the outcome of the court case about his death or murder would be more appropriate.

Once again I am urging you to do all you can to see that justice is done, not just in the case of Nelson Curikur but in the cases of all the Mapuche Indians in your country who have suffered terrible human rights abuses and violations time and time again in your country.

Justice delayed is justice denied—do the right thing and act now your excellency and the world and all its peoples will be better for it.

Yours Sincerely,

Joe Darovan.

51 Church Road
East Wall
Dublin 3
Ireland

29-10-1992

Your Excellency

As someone who is always concerned about the violation of human rights I am writing to you to express my concern on a matter about which I have recently learned.

I was distressed to learn of the extrajudicial execution in 1973 of Nelson Wladimiro Purinir Lincoqueo. It is good to see that investigations have been carried out in this case and I look forward to the day when his killers are brought to justice.

As a member of Amnesty International I believe that this and all other cases of human rights abuses must be investigated thoroughly and properly.

Amnesty International also believes that the amnesty law of 1978 is an obstacle to the thorough investigation of human rights violations in Chile during the rule of the military regime.

Proper investigation procedures into all cases of human rights abuse during that period would bring past cases into the open and prevent them happening again.

Yours respectfully,

Terence Bukler

Sr. Patricio Aylwin Azócar
Presidente de la República
de Chile
Palacio de la Moneda
Santiago

Pascale Agnew
Whitegate
Co. Clare
Republic of Ireland

28, October 1992.

Your Excellency,

I am very concerned about the violation of anyone's human rights;

1992 is being marked as the 500th anniversary of the arrival on the continent, it therefore seems an appropriate time to highlight concerns with respect to unresolved human rights violations against indigenous peoples of the Americas, including the case of Nelson Wladimir Curriñir Lincoqueo.

I am very concerned about the extrajudicial execution of Nelson Wladimir Curriñir Lincoqueo in 1973 and am welcoming the investigations into his killing and I hope that the full truth will emerge and that those responsible for his death will be brought to justice.

Amnesty International believes this must happen with respect to this and all human rights violations committed in Chile in order to prevent such atrocities from recurring. I believe that the amnesty law of 1978 constitutes an obstacle to clarifying past abuses and preventing their recurrence and that the law should be repealed.

Yours respectfully,

Pascale Agnew