Dear Mr. President,

I am involved in an Amnesty International group at the University of Nevada, Reno. I have read about the extrajudicial execution of Nelson Wladimiro Curinir Lincoqueo and would like to express my concern about this and other human rights violations against indigenous peoples. I hope that you can do something to stop these kinds of violations of human rights.

Please let me know if you are currently doing things to enforce human rights and proper judicial processes.

Sincerely,
Neil Greene
