Dear President:

I am a member of Amnesty International. Amnesty International is a non-partisan group. We believe in the universal rights of all human beings.

I am expressing concern at the death threats and intimidations that have been received by CODEPU (Comite de Defensa de los Derechos del Pueblo). They are a human rights group and they should be allowed to continue their work without fear of reprisals and threats on their lives.

Please look into this important matter and bring the people who are responsible for these threats on CODEPU to justice.

Thank-you for your understanding and time.

With great concern,

Urmila Naresh

Please help CODEPU.
