His Excellency
Don Patricio Aylwin Azocar
President of the Republic
Palacio de la Moneda
Santiago, Chile

Dear Mr. President:

Please permit me to express to you my most sincere gratitude for your kindness in receiving me in the government palace during my visit to Santiago.

I was truly pleased and most impressed to find a Chile progressing in tranquility, harmony and with great vigor, and in many aspects leading the rest of Latin America. Without any doubt, this has been one of the factors in the success that our business has achieved throughout Chile.

I have taken due note, Mr. President, of the issues you mentioned in our conversation, and rest assured that I will do everything to bring the matters to the attention of the appropriate U.S. officials.

It is also my pleasure to extend an invitation to you to attend the celebration in mid-1991 marking the fiftieth anniversary of the presence of Coca-Cola in Chile, and we indeed hope that you will be able to join us on this important occasion.

It is my fervent desire, Mr. President, that you achieve the greatest success in leading your country to greater levels of prosperity.

With warm regards, and may God bless you, your family and all of the Chilean people.

Sincerely,
