Dear President Aylwin:

As you may conclude from my address, I am an American. However, I enjoy traveling and have traveled half around the world.

However, one of the many countries I have never traveled is to your country. I have read so much about your country and it's customs, and would love to visit someday to learn your customs and enjoy it's beauty as you see it. From all the research I have done, your native land has an interesting history and colorful culture. My dream is to, someday, experience and realize the wonderful things I have read and learned about your country in person.

Our libraries here are limited for space and cannot capture the real essence of what it would be like to visit your country in person. Therefore, please send more information about your country, it's customs and how I may visit you someday. I also collect beautiful vases, urns, plates and crystal from different countries. Please send a vase, urn, plate or an item made of crystal so that I may have something to commemorate this correspondence. I would love to also have an AUTOGRAPHED PHOTO OF YOU to frame.

Thank you. I hope that this will be the beginning of a long across-the-seas friendship. Wishing you and yours the very best, I remain

Respectfully,

S. J. JENNINGS
