Dear President,

I'm writing to You as a person interested in the questions of human rights all over the world. I've learnt to my great concern that members of CODEPU, Comité de Defensa de los Derechos del Pueblo, in Santiago received death threats over the telephone on Jan. 29th 1992 after their office had been broken into earlier on the same day.

Therefore I now turn to You to ask You to have an investigation made into these threats and to have those found responsible brought to justice.

Above all I appeal to You to do all in Your power, so that adequate steps be taken to protect the lives and physical integrity of all members of CODEPU and others engaged in legitimate human rights activities.

I thank You for Your attention and hope for Your help.

Yours respectfully,

Marya Niederberger
