Dear Sir,

I have been informed that fifteen women political prisoners are currently being held in a men's prison, the Centro de Detención Preventiva San Miguel in Santiago.

I would urge you,

1) to allow them to be moved immediately to a women's prison,

2) to ensure that their trials be conducted as soon as possible.

Finally, I would urge you to free all political prisoners for, surely, in a democracy no-one should be imprisoned for political reasons.

Yours faithfully,
J. Clayton
