Dear President Aylwin:

This letter is to express my humble respect and thanks to you for allowing GDR leader Erich Honecker to live in your country.

As all too many of your countrymen know, there were all too few countries in the world which gave asylum to Chilean refugees after the 1973 Coup; and the G.D.R. of Erich Honecker was one which did.

Now the situation is reversed, and it is very much to your government's credit and to the credit of the Chilean people that asylum is now given.

Thank you again, and know also that there are many people around the world who wish you and the new Chile all success in its moves towards a truly democratic society.

Yours truly,
